PROGRAM DIRECTOR JOB POSTING

Start-up agency planning residential services for female inmates and their children is seeking a master's level professional with experience in program design, development, funding, and evaluation in the areas of substance abuse and mental health, child care and development, and corrections (gender-specific programming).

Responsible for shaping a program (including substance abuse treatment, job training, mental health services, parenting skills, and re-entry planning) for up to 20 incarcerated women and up to 40 of their preschool age children.

Ideal candidate will be a creative, energetic self-starter who is skilled in establishing new relationships with community stakeholders/partners.

Clinical experience required, preferably working with incarcerated women and/or their children. Non-profit and grant writing experience preferred 15 hours a week. Salary negotiable. Mid-February start date.

Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.

We welcome and encourage applicants from diverse racial groups and/or sexual orientations as well as people from different national origins, faiths, ages, and disability status.
